

STEDMAN'S MEDICAL DICTIONARY

ABBREVIATIONS AND SYMBOLS USED IN THE DICTIONARY

The abbreviations and symbols below are used in the derivations and definitions of entries in the dictionary. They should be distinguished from the abbreviations and symbols given as entries in the vocabulary or accompanying the spelled-out entry words that they represent, as discussed above.

| | | | |
|---------|-----------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------------|
| acc. | accusative | L.L. | Late Latin |
| adj. | adjective | masc. | masculine |
| Am.Ind. | American Indian | M.E. | Middle English |
| Ar. | Arabic | Med.L., Mediev. L. | Medieval Latin |
| A.S. | Anglo-Saxon | Mod.L. | Modern Latin |
| Br. | British | myth. | mythologic |
| c., ca | L. circa, about | N.A. | Nomina Anatomica |
| cf. | L. confer, compare | neut. | neuter |
| Ch. | Chinese | N.G. | New Guinea |
| char. | character | ntr. | neuter |
| C.I. | Colour Index | obs. | obsolete |
| D. | Dutch | O.E. | Old English |
| dial. | dialect | O.Fr. | Old French |
| dim. | diminutive | O.H.G. | Old High German |
| EC | Enzyme Commission | O.N. | Old Norse |
| e.g. L. | exempli gratia, for example | p. | participle |
| Eng. | English | Pers. | Persian |
| etym. | etymology | Pg. | Portuguese |
| fem. | feminine | pl. | plural |
| Fr. | French | pp. | past participle |
| fr. | from | priv. | privative, negative |
| fut. | future | pr.p. | present participle |
| G. | Greek | q.v. | L. quod vide, which see |
| Gael. | Gaelic | Sansk. | Sanskrit |
| gen. | genitive | Sc. | Scandinavian |
| Ger. | German | sing. | singular |
| Hind. | Hindu | Sp. | Spanish |
| Ice. | Icelandic | Sw. | Swedish |
| i.e. | L. id est, that is | T.A. | Terminologia Anatomica |
| Ind. | Indian | thr. | Through |
| It. | Italian | U.K. | United Kingdom |
| Jap. | Japanese | U.S. | United States |
| L. | Latin | W.Af. | West African |

* In biographic data, denotes year of birth when year of death is not given.

[†] In biographic data, denotes year of death when year of birth is not given.